

Dear Pastor and Church Family,

January 2018

새해 복 많이 받으세요! Happy New Year! We hope that you all are doing well and experiencing the blessings of the Lord. As I look back over 2017, my heart is filled with joy as I remember all that the Lord has done for our family. The Lord raised all of our needed monthly support and allowed us to complete deputation. By His grace, we were able to learn many important lessons that have helped us prepare for the work here in Korea. We are grateful for the many opportunities we had to present the Gospel on deputation this year, some of which resulted in folks making a profession of faith in Christ for salvation. On July 26, we welcomed our precious daughter, JoAnn, into the world. It has been such a privilege to have her in our lives. On September 29, we safely arrived here in Busan, Korea. The past three months have been an incredible time for our family as we have been immersed in the culture and language of the Korean people. We have seen the Lord open doors and provide for our needs. We have been able to pass out hundreds of Gospel tracts as a family to people on the sidewalks of our city. We praise the Lord for how He has blessed already, and we look forward to what He will do in 2018!

In this new year, we are asking the Lord to use us to see Korean people come to Christ for salvation here in Busan. We are so burdened to communicate the true Gospel to the 3.6 million Koreans in our city, most of whom have an atheistic or Buddhist worldview. Please pray that the Lord would enable us and that He would also bless our language learning efforts. Sarah continues to go to classes and I am in the middle of a very intense semester of full-time Korean study. We look forward to acquiring some level of proficiency in the near future.

We are so grateful for your faithful prayer and financial investment in the ministry that the Lord has called us to. It is an honor to be partnered with you so that the true Gospel can go forth here in Busan, Korea. May the Lord bless and use you all greatly as you serve Him in 2018!
